

IHS Integrated Diabetes Education Recognition Program Sample Team Approach Statement

This institution recognizes that diabetes self-management education is an integral component of care to people with diabetes. We advocate the provision of diabetes self-management education through a multidisciplinary team. We will promote the team-based approach through ongoing team conferencing, recruitment of team members with expertise in diabetes, and continuing diabetes education to facility staff.

Source: IHS Integrated Diabetes Education Recognition Program Sample Materials